

ARAS
Archive for Research in Archetypal Symbolism presents
EKPHRAZEIN V: THE MIRROR

Tuesday, October 24th, 7pm
28 E 39th St, New York, NY 10016

ARAS is pleased to announce an evening of ekphrastic poetry and music. Coming from the Greek ek, "out," and phrasis, "speak," the verb ekphrazein means to call a visual object by name. It is one art form inspired by another, thus allowing each form to illuminate and enhance the other. See what new forms arise as two poets and a musical duo perform works in response to the archetype of the Mirror.

INTRODUCTIONS
Ami Ronnberg & Miriam Atkin

PERFORMANCES
Poetry by Aimee Walleston, Aldrin Valdez & Alina Gregorian
Music by Brooke Herr & Rachel Brotman

The event will conclude with a wine reception in the Archive.

ARAS, Archive for Research in Archetypal Symbolism, is a pictorial and written archive of mythological, ritualistic, and symbolic images from all over the world and from all epochs of human history. The collection probes the universality of archetypal themes and provides a testament to the deep and abiding connections that unite the disparate factions of the human family.
